

HOSPICE CAN HELP

throughout the end-of-life journey.

Hospice is a support system that surrounds patients and families with expert care, symptom relief, emotional support, and spiritual peace. Comprehensive services include medication management, providing equipment, hands on care, and caregivers support. The sooner hospice is involved, the more it can help.

Learn more at:
calhospice.org

CHAPCA